Mt. Shiloh Ushers Anniversary

The Mount Shiloh Baptist Church Usher Board will celebrate its anniversary this Sunday evening at 3 p.m. With the Rev. Mack Johnson and his Bethany Gospel Singers as the special guest. The devotionals and welcome will be given by the local Usher Board. Several local usher boards have been invited to bring greetings. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

The general public is invited to the ordination service of brother Wyatt T. Venable this first Sunday evening at 4 p.m. at the White Oak Grove Baptist Church. Several local churches and pastors have been invited to make up the council. The pastor of the church, Rev. H. J. Hendericks will be in charge of the service.

Impressive services were held at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The Rev. R. H. Turner, pastor of the St. Mark Baptist Church, Amherst, was in charge. A large number of relatives, friends and members attended the service. The senior choir rendered beautiful music and a beautiful solo was rendered by Mrs. Emma Lyons of Washington, D.C.

The regular monthly meeting of the Appomattox Assembly will be held on Wed., Nov. 12, at 7 p.m. All representatives and members are asked to be present.

The next regular meeting of the NAACP will be held at the Mount Airy Baptist Church on Monday after the second Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The report from the State conference will be given by the delegates. Members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Officers, members and friends are reminded of the special program to be given at the promise Land Baptist Church on the second Sunday evening in November at 3 p.m. The Rev. Wyatt T. Venable and his Gospel Chorus will be the special guest.

The annual Ladies Day sponsored by the Ladies Aid Club of the First Baptist Church was observed last Sunday evening at 3 p.m. Mrs. Ella Mae Preston, President presided. The welcome was given by Mrs. Ann Patterson. Mrs. T. W. Hamlet gave the history of the club. The guest speaker was the Rev. A. B. Jones and music was rendered by his senior choir of the Boulding Hill Baptist Church of Amherst, Va. The message was a challenge to all present. Remarks were given by Rev. Lawing and several visitors. The offering for the day was very good.

All officers, members and friends are asked to attend the regular preaching service at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. The pastor who has been on his vacation will be in charge of the service.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Q. Lawing spent a few days last week in Baltimore as the guest of their daughter and family, Mrs. Poteat. Mr. Jim Reed motored them up.

Mrs. Susie Sykes and nephew, Mr. Joe Scruggs, Jr. of Washington, D.C., visited here and in Lynchburg, to attend the funeral service of their cousin.

Miss Helen Stevens is on her vacation, visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore, Md. and Pittsburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin have been to New York City to atend an affair given in his honor, naming him as the man of the year.

County Librarians Attend Media Congress

Appomattox County School librarians left early Tuesday morning, October 21 for Roanoke to attend a Media Congress. The three media services of the Division of Special Services; Bureau of Teaching Materials, Film Production, and School Libraries and Textbooks, and the Division of Telecommunications cooperated with the Virginia Educational Vendors Association to sponsor the one day meeting.

The purposes of the meeting were to promote an improved selection of media materials & equipment through commercial exhibits and to provide a forum through which the media services of the State Department of Education could give information and counsel in the areas of instructional media.

The media services of the State Department of Education gave audio visual presentations concerned with the most relevant needs of the media personnel in the state. Educational vendors exhibited all types of media including library books, audio-visual software and equipment and television hardware and software.

Enjoying the Media Congress from the Appomattox County Schools, were Mrs. Margaret Glover, Mrs. Louise Parris, Mrs. Hattie Hayes, Mrs. Theresa Armstrong, Mrs. Nelwyn Smith, Mrs. Virginia Beard, and Mrs. Judy Blanton.

Adult Physical Education Program To Start Nov. 3

The adult physical education program for men being offered by the Appomattox County public school system for the first semester will start Monday night, Nov. 3, in the gym of the new Appomattox County High School. Classes will be offered on Monday and Thursday nights from 7 - 9 through the month of January, 1976. Mr. Gordon Bragg, physical education instructor at the ACHS, will be in charge of the adult class in physical education.

Adults who have not registered as well as those who have registered for the class should be present on opening night in order to be scheduled for a team. The class in physical education will center mainly around basketball. Other activities include weight lifting, ping-pong, and volleyball.

The registration fee for the class which is scheduled for approximately forty hours is five dollars per person. Adults who enroll in the class will be scheduled for participation. It is anticipated that two groups will be scheduled from 7 - 8 and two groups from 8 - 9. Definite procedures for using the physical education facilities and rules for participating in the class will be explained at the first class session. Any further information concerning the class may be obtained from Gordon Bragg at the [illegible] or B. Carter at 352-[illegible].

"Liberty Tree" To Be Planted At High School

District, FVGC Held Fall Meeting Saturday

The Fall meeting of the South Central District, Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., was held Saturday, October 25, in Appomattox, with the Appomattox Garden Club serving as the host club and hostess for the morning coffee.

Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr., District President of Appomattox, presided at the business session and luncheon.

Mrs. O. O. vanDeusen of Front Royal, President of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc. brought greetings and spoke on the special programs and projects of the State organization.

Mrs. Francis F. Carr of Richmond, First Vice-President of the Virginia Federation of GardenClubs, Inc., presented the program- "An Evergreen Christmas" following the luncheon.

Extensive plans for the bicentennial year were presented by Mrs. O. O. Uti of Lynchburg. A State Flower Show entitled "Virginia-Legacy Legend and Lore" is planned for July 2,3, and 4, 1976 at the Roanoke Civic Center with all six Districts in the state participating. Mrs. Utt, Mrs. J. D. Allen, Jr., Mrs. C. L. Fleshman, and Mrs. O. F. Tolley of Lynchburg; Mrs. O. Robert Plumb of Milton, N. C. and Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr. of Appomattox are serving on committees from the South Central District.

The District voted to plant a tree in the grounds of the Appomattox County High School-the place of the Fall meeting- and it will be designated a "Liberty Tree". Plant a Liberty Tree is a Bicentennial project of the National and State organizations. America's ideals are deep rooted as a tree; then the Liberty tree is an appropriate inspirational symbol. Mrs. William F. S. Gresham of Lynchburg, State Chairman, will also serve as chairman for the District tree planting.

Displays of the five "Kinetic Designs" made by members of the South Central District for the symposium in Blacksburg in August were on display for the ladies to view as were the four Collages made for state competition. Both District and Club projects were also on display.

Two new clubs were welcomed into the District-Four Seasons of Lynchburg; Mrs. John C. Mohr, President and Sunshine and Flowers of Campbell County with Mrs. J. R. Worsham,III, President.
